APPROVE ALBERTA GOVERNMENT'S

Telephone Policy.—Board of Trade Resolution.—Next Convention in Medicine Hat

Prince Albert, Sask., June 20.—To-day the Associated Boards of Trade resolved that the Dominion Government be asked to assume a point of the responsibility for bank notes in the provinces.

Edmonton delegates had a resolution passed that action be taken for reformation of suitable laws.

The convention endorsed the attitude of the Alberta government to ward the principle of government ownership and operation of telephones.

Mr. Fisher, of Edmonton, introduced and carried a resolution that the Government be requested to provide more adequate postal and mail service.

A proposal that the government provide a distinctive grade for Alberta was rejected. A resolution was passed that no territories should be located unless inspected by an official as to sanitary and other suitable conditions.

The next convention will be held in Medicine Hat.

Yesterday afternoon the delegates were given an excursion on the river and a dinner by the town of Prince Albert. The convention ended today.

It was more largely attended than in former years and the business more important. Its growing recognition is shown by the number of members of the legislature and railway officials who attended. A resolution that more separate associations be detached.

ORIGIN OF GREAT MEN.

There is a tendency among us to consider that this new world has had a monopoly of the great "self-made men" but a little thought and a little research the other day brought out some facts that bear quite pertinently on the subject.

Evidently England's long roll-call of great men has had its share of individuals who worked their way to the front through poverty, sorrow and long fatigue. What could be more remote than the crude coloring of a barber's sign-post and one of Turner's magnificent sun-splashed canvases? Yet Turner, it is said, began life as a barber.

Cardinal Wolsey, Daniel De Foë and Henry Kirke White—it would be impossible to name in a month three men more utterly unlike each other—were all the sons of butchers. Jerry Taylor, one of the greatest of English preachers, Richard Adair, the real founder of our cotton manufacture, and Turner, the painter, were barbers.

John Bunyan was a tinker, Robert Burns a plowman, Ben Jonson a bricklayer, Livingston was a weaver, Stanley a workhouse boy, Carey a cobbler, Copernicus was the son of a baker. Kepler came from a German inn. Whitfield was a barman at the Bell Tavern in Gloucester, Haydn was a wheelwright, Hildebrand, village carpenter.

George Stephenson was an engine driver and taught himself arithmetic on the side of a colliery vagabond. Willis learned art with a piece of chalk and a barn door. West made his first brushes out of a cat's tail.

Watt constructed his first model out of an old spring. Humphrey Davy contemplated his scientific appliances from kitchen pots and pans, and Faraday from glass bottles. Eliza Hurrit mastered eighteen ancient and modern languages while earning his living as a blacksmith.

And is small Alberta towns and isolated hamlets, there are assuredly small boys growing up in very hard conditions who will leave their mark upon the history of the province.

Just now, however, they are more interested in locating desirable swimming holes than in dreaming dreams of the things they are going to do.

DEVELOPMENT VS. PLUNDER.

The policy of the Whitney Government, in administering Northern Ontario for the revenue that could be got out of it was a very popular theme of Conservative orators and journals in the West a couple of years ago—much more popular than it is likely to be again. That policy was then accused was the unquestionable proof of towering statesmanship, the highest testimony a provincial premier could give of his genius for government. The policy was then drawn of the overbearing efforts of Ontario; statistics by the yard were produced to demonstrate how many shelds had been extracted from the sale and rent of the natural resources of the northern unsettled districts; and praise without measure was heaped upon the Whitney Government because, after making the Ross Government or by for squandering the public domain, they realized their own resources to power by a slaughter of resources that dwarfed all precedents to insignificance.

In contrast to this gratifying conditions of things, we were invited to look with disgust on our own unhappy plight. Ontario administered its public domain and made money from it. No such golden opportunity should be ours. The Federal Government like an unfaithful guardian had "robbed us of our inheritance" in wilderness and wilderness. In the domain of provincial control. All we had were our splendid prospects and our mountain scenery, and Saskatchewan lacked the latter. Whence Mr. Bennett, with "howled head" and downcast mien, made mournful pilgrimages through the pillaged land, warning an enslaved and spiritless people that he was their sole surviving hope of salvation, and that if they did not rise to his support, he too would flicker out at the first election. Prophetic Richard! About everything from the Bible to the British North America Act was called upon for allusions and allusions as to the fate of those who in this proper hour failed to assert their manhood and tamely submitted to the spoiler. But of this kind was laid out by the hand, the general part being that if the new provinces permitted the Dominion to retain control of their public land, they could never aspire to the proud position and the brilliant efforts of Ontario. So and mendicants we would always be; perpetually impoverished and dependent on their pitance on the powers that be at Ottawa.

Let us see how the work out. If it were fair to compare the policies, it is also fair to compare the results of the policies. If the Whitney policy in Ontario was the standard by which the Federal policy in Alberta and Saskatchewan were judged, it surely is fair to measure the results of the Whitney administration in Ontario by the standard of the results of Federal administration in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

The new provinces today are prosperous in every meaning of the word. Work is more plentiful than workers, wages are high and the prospects are bright. Development along every line goes on apace, the only deterrent being lack of laborers and lack of capital to undertake all that would be otherwise undertaken. The provincial governments with fixed, certain and liberal revenues carry on the work of road-making, bridge building, telephone construction, while the Federal Government induces immigration, encourages railway construction, erects public buildings and extends the postal system. It is the business of both Federal and Provincial Governments to get people into the country, and to make their conditions of life as satisfactory as possible after they arrive. The people are contented, prosperous and satisfied, and will be pardoned if they smile as they recall the dark prophecies of the Conservative gentlemen two or three years ago.

Things are different in Northern Ontario. There the people who have gone into the country are getting out in scores, and those who are not leaving are threatening to secede from the Province. Why is this? The fault is not in the country. Its resources are unquestioned. If they were not unquestioned, the secessionists would move out. The settlers want to stay there, but they declare the present conditions of life to be intolerable and do not see any hope of amendment. The country is being despoiled of its timber; its mines are being worked, and from these large revenues are derived by the Ontario Government. But there the activity of the Government ends. The north country is administered for revenue, and when it produces the revenue, the Government's interest in it ceases. Roads are practically unknown, education effort is unknown, schools are few and difficult to maintain owing to the scarcity of settlement. In the midst of a nation marvellously prosperous and possessing a rich man, the pioneer of the north country is settling with discontent and dissatisfaction.

These conditions simply illustrate the difference between a country that is administered for the purpose of developing it, and a country that is administered for the purpose of producing revenue. Alberta and Saskatchewan are administered for the purpose of development; Northern Ontario is administered simply as a region from which to extract revenue. The Federal Government does not rely for revenue on exacting toll from the pioneer of the north country, but on the revenue of the Ontario Government; the Ontario Government gets its revenue simply by placing a penalty on the settler of Northern Ontario. The pioneer in Alberta and Saskatchewan has to bear the burden of making his way in a new country under conditions made as easy as possible by governmental assistance and co-operation; the pioneer in Northern Ontario has to bear his burdens without any such assistance or co-operation, and finds little consolation in the fact that while he struggles unaided against these overwhelming odds, his district is being despoiled of its wealth for the benefit of the settled portion of the province. The more Alberta and Saskatchewan are developed the better for the settler; the more Northern Ontario is exploited, the worse the condition of the pioneer present and future. The greater the population of Alberta and Saskatchewan the larger the revenues of both Federal and Provincial Governments, and that without adding a cent to the settler's burden the more the settlers in Northern Ontario the smaller the area left for plunder by the Province. Government and the nearer the day when some other means must be adopted for securing funds.

Premier Whitney may thank his stars Northern Ontario is not Alberta. If the people of this province had been subjected to the treatment of the pioneers in those districts "secession" wouldn't have been their slogan. Yet this was the trap of the Conservative friends, Federal and Provincial, tried to lead us into.

THE RIGHT KIND OF FAILURE.

A special York news work out. It is very fair to compare the policies, it is also fair to compare the results of the policies. If the Whitney policy in Ontario was the standard by which the Federal policy in Alberta and Saskatchewan were judged, it surely is fair to measure the results of the Whitney administration in Ontario by the standard of the results of Federal administration in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

WOUNDED FEELINGS.

The West may usually be relied on to add a relish of novelty to a cornucopia of function. Prince Fushimi came on an errand of peace, but it was his last afternoon of wounded feelings rankling in aldermanic breasts in at least two western cities. The (anti), however, appears to have been not with the Prince himself, but with the jealously exclusive reception committee who determined his doings and guarded him, all too well it would seem from the presumptuously curious. Winnipeg arranged a public reception, but as only the three aldermen on the committee were invited to dine with him at Government House the other members of the council cut out the show and went to a ball given. This is attributed to the "sour grapes" temperament, but it may have been merely an indication of aldermanic preference. Calgary's reception seems to have consisted of a drive around town with a Mounted Police escort to keep off the aldermanic and real estate agents. An Alburton reporter managed to steal aboard the Royal train but was ejected at Banff. Reception committees appear to sense what recombles the "ministers" of Henry VIII. In their facility of interfering between royalty and democracy.

WILL OF DR. GAETZ.

Red Deer Preacher Bequeaths $10,000 to Alberta College.

Red Deer, June 19.—The will of the late Rev. Dr. Leo Gaetz provides for the following bequests:

To Alberta College, Edmonton, in order to found an annual scholarship in study and good conduct, $1,000.

To the Methodist Church, Red Deer, $1,000.

To the superannuation fund of the Methodist Church in Canada (western branch), $1,000.

To the General Missionary Society of the Methodist Church in Canada, $1,000.

By virtue of his death, Dr. Gaetz had ever to the trustees of the Methodist Church in Red Deer certain property to the value of $5,000 and donated the sum of $1,000 to the Red Deer Memorial Hospital.

At the last meeting of the town council the following resolution of sympathy was passed:

"We, the members of the council, hereby express to Mayor H. R. Gaetz, ex-Mayor R. L. Gaetz (the founder of the family of Dr. Gaetz) the best of the town our heartfelt sympathy at his removal from our midst, knowing as we do that the present prosperity of Red Deer is largely due to the efforts of the earliest days to the present day."

Superbly Trained Wild Animals With the Norris & Rowe Circus.

Superbly trained wild beasts will divide honors with the aerial gymnasts and acrobats with the Greater Norris & Rowe show this season. In fact more attention has been paid to educating wild and native beasts than ever before. C. I. Norris has long been acknowledged the host of the very best animal trainers in this country. During the past winter Mr. Norris assisted by John Carver, a trian director, has successfully broken many wild and native beasts, and given a school of Arabian stallions, Shetland ponies and thoroughbreds an excellent education. A troupe of forest Russian bears will be seen in wrestling bouts, boxing, playing soccer with blood hounds, juggling with their feet, etc. Two huge baboons turn somersaults; a large troupe of dogs of all sizes, kinds and breeds accomplish so many difficult tricks that one is forced to marvel at their intelligence. Lions jump through hoops of fire; a group of tigers, lions and bears have been successfully trained; a herd of elephants play address, drill, dance, etc.; the superbly marked stallions proudly execute elaborate movements, dance and so through intricate manoeuvres. The highly denture Shetland ponies are capable of doing almost anything. Camels, llamas and domestic animals have been taught to haul wagons and allow themselves to be driven in single and double harness. There are also a number of domestic animals trained to do odd appearing things and while the circus is of danger is almost still they were as hard to train as the wild beasts. This refers especially to the elephant, camel, pig, pelican, etc. In fact, the arrangement of the programme of the Greater Norris & Rowe circus for the present tour permits of a complete show for which one admission is charged. The big shows and menagerie will exhibit at Edmonton, Monday, July 1st.

C.N.R. CHEAP RATES.

The Canadian National announces rates to the Edmonton fair at less than single fair for the round trip. For example, Togo, Sask., is 41¢, while the regular one-way rate is $10.30, being 62.5¢ less than single fare. Prince Albert is $10.00, while the regular one-way fare is $14.45; and rates from intermediate points are correspondingly low. They are in effect from all stations in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

The C.N.R. also have on sale a single fare rate to Toronto and return which is $20.00, on sale July 1, 4, 5 and 6, good until August 9, and in payment of $1 can be extended to 27. This excursion applies all rail or lake and rail via Port Arthur.

Another round trip ticket is on sale daily, limited to September 20, of $11.25 to Toronto, $27.05 to Albany, and all intermediate points at correspondingly low rates. This ticket permits stop overs at both directions in Canada in both directions, and includes both first class berth and meals on the upper lake steamers.

Also another first class rate good for 30 days for the round trip, on sale daily to the same territory, averaging about five dollars less than the amounts mentioned above. This also permits stop overs at both directions at points in Canada.

The Winnipeg fair rate is $22 on the C.N.R. and is on sale July 12 to 19; good return up to and on July 25. For Dominion day the fare and a third rate will be in effect June 25 to July 1 inclusive, returning up to and on July 3.

DEATH IN THE WAKE OF INCENDIARY BUSH FIRES

The Woods of Northern Ontario Swept By Ferce Fires, Started Through Spite In Effort to Destroy Markings of Staked Claims.—Two Men Burned To Death

Latchford, Ont., June 20.—Bush fires which have swept over a large area during the past few days, and which are still raging, have endangered the lives and property of hundreds of prospectors. It is feared that several lives have been lost.

The prospector who arrived today from up the Montreal river, reports that the flames have surrounded the best river and Elk lake district, and that some of the men in that region will never be able to get out in safety as their retreat has been cut off.

Two Men Victims of Fire.
It is already definitely reported that two men have been burned to death around Bear river, where a great many were forced to leave all their belongings and literally run for their lives. Some of them managed to sink their tents and supplies in the river, but the majority have lost all their supplies. Dozens of canoes have been burned along the shores of Lake Simcoe.

WINE GROWERS TAKE TO ARMS

Situation in France Grows Worse.—Clemenceau Insulted and May Resist

Paris, June 20.—The brief dispatches which reached Paris up to noon showed that the conflict which has occurred between troops and wine growers in the south was more sanguinary than at first expected. At Narbonne three persons were killed and a hundred soldiers and officers, including a score of women are said to have been wounded, a number of them fatally. The troops were ordered to fire in the air, straight at the mob, bombing them from the towers of the superstructure. A whole army corps has been put in motion to deal with the rebellious wine growers. The state language, which was to be given tonight in honor of the King of Spain, has been countermanded in consequence of the bloodshed. The newspapers report another attempt to burn the subprefecture at Narbonne. Generalissimo fired from the upper story and the attackers fled. It is also announced that there has been further shooting in the streets of Narbonne, and that many persons have been wounded. The wine growers continue to pour into Narbonne and threaten to set fire to the hotels occupied by army officers. Troops are arriving.

In the chamber of deputies today, after a tumultuous session, which Premier Clemenceau was addressed in insulting terms, an interpellation of the government on its repressive measures toward the wine growers was postponed until tomorrow. The premier said he had no particular desire to remain power.

Attempted to Burn Prefecture.
Perpignan, France, June 20.—A desperate attempt was made tonight by a huge crowd of rioters to burn down the prefecture. A fire was started simultaneously in four quarters of the building. The crowd fought off the fire brigade for a time, but, assisted by troops, firemen finally succeeded in putting out the flames, however. Thousands of manifestants are parading the streets tonight in a state of the wildest excitement.

Seven Victims of Collision.
Monpellier, France, June 20.—The greater part of the population demonstrated in streets tonight until late. There were severe collisions with the troops, and shots were exchanged. There were six or seven victims of the fighting.

NEW METHOD OF ELECTING.
Metropolitan Sec Endorsed by Diocesan Synod of Rupert's Land.

Winnipeg, June 20.—At the diocesan synod of Rupert's Land, now in session, an interesting discussion took place after noon on the initiative of Canon Murray, who read the report of a committee on the Metropolitan Sec. The report dealt with the maintenance of Rupert's Land as Metropolitan Sec. It is in accordance with unbroken custom of the church for maintaining continuity of policy by its central position. The proposal of the committee was that the Metropolitan Sec should be elected by a new method, a committee of sixteen being formed, eight from the provincial synod and eight from the diocesan synod, which should nominate six, and that after the first ballot one of these be dropped, after the second one, and so on until three remained, from whom the house of bishops should select one. The discussion brought out some opposition and various amendments were moved, one of which provided for a new diocese of Manitoba being formed, and making Winnipeg the diocesan synod. The Land and retaining its Metropolitan Sec. Finally, the proposal in its original form carried, and the archbishop appointed Canon Murray, Archbishop Fortin and Chancellor Macpherson a committee to prepare this report for the provincial synod, which meets later in August.

Crocker Is Better.
Duluth, June 20.—Richard Crocker has regained his health after suffering for a few days from a cold. He engaged to prepare a speech for the Irish Derby, June 26, and has entered his bay colt, Georgetown, for the same race.

FOUR ITALIANS ELECTROCUTED

Stack of Boiler Which They Were Moving Came Into Contact With Live Wires

New York, June 20.—Four Italian laborers were shocked to death and others rendered unconscious tonight when a steel boiler, which the men were moving on a flat car, came in contact with a group of electric lines and Gamble, soap manufacturers, in Mariner's Harbor station.

The boiler was being transferred from one building to another over the yard railway that led between the two plants and under the wires of the Richmond Light and Railways company. Seven Italians composed the gang, four of them were pushing with both hands against the boiler while the others were on the wooden track of the car. They failed to observe that a stack towering high above the boiler was reaching toward the live wires. As the wires touched the stack seven of the men snapped, while 5,000 volts of electricity passed through the bodies of the four of the men. Three men dropped dead.

Dangling ends of the broken wires struck two other men, leaving them senseless to the ground. Late tonight they had not recovered consciousness. The seventh man, escaped injury. When he saw what had happened to his comrades he fled. Two hours in charge of the yard were arrested.

The above Stallions will stand for service at Barn at the rear of 113 Bellamy St., corner of Kinistino and Bellamy.

AROUND THE CITY

LOCALS.

A special informal meeting of the city council is called for tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock to discuss some matters of importance.

All the Masonic lodges of the city will attend divine service next Sunday afternoon at All Saints' church, where an appropriate sermon will be preached by Rev. H. A. Gray.

It is expected that the Italian, Macfarlane, who was arrested on a charge of the attempted murder of a Canadian at Belovick, will be taken to that place tomorrow for his preliminary trial.

The main White from Horse Hills who fell over the embankment on Jasper avenue east and later was taken to the General Hospital is recovering from the effects of his ailment.

Mr. John A. Nelson, Colesco, Nebraska, who has spent a few days in the city, left on his return home yesterday. Mr. Nelson, who invested considerable money in Fraser avenue property, is highly pleased with Edmonton and intends to come to this city shortly to reside.

The Bijou theatre showed to three packed houses last night. The first two shows were to capacity houses. The Misses George Franklin and Hazel Winn made a great hit in their first, "If I Should." John Hall was heartily applauded upon his illustrated song, "The Moon Has Its Eyes on You." The pictures were fine, especially the one entitled, "Rescued by an Angel."

On Monday the St. Jean Baptiste Society will go to Mariville to attend the celebration marking St. Jean Baptiste Day. It is expected fully 200 will be present from Edmonton. The C. N. R. will run a special train. The program of the celebration includes a religious procession in the morning, sports in the afternoon and a concert in the evening.

LARGEST IN CITY'S HISTORY.
The Edmonton bank clearings for the week ending yesterday were the largest in the history of the city. The amount reached was $1,111,179.50.

BUILDING PERMITS.
At the office of the building inspector for this morning permits were issued for the following:—
A. Camerun, Jager, dwelling, $13.00.
E. Bodnaruk, Syndicate, dwelling, $2.00.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.
At the Mounted Police barracks, Fort Saskatchewan, yesterday, Inspector Strickland committed for trial the Indian named Alex. Mahokis, who was arrested here several days ago, on a charge of having stolen a horse the property of another Indian on the White Fish Lake reserve.

Y. M. C. A. CORNER STONE.
The corner stone of the new Y. M. C. A. building will be laid on the main wing at 10:30 am. The ceremony will be performed by Mrs. Bailey, wife of Lord Governor Bailey, and it is expected that the function will be a notable one in the history of the Y. M. C. A. development in Edmonton.

EXHIBITION POLICE.
A special exhibition police force, consisting of thirty men, exclusive of the city staff, are being arranged for service during the fair week commencing the first of July. The force will include mounted men and detectives, and will be in charge of City Detective Griffith, who has had the administration of the force during exhibition week for the past four years. Applications for positions will be received by him.

A FAMILY QUARREL.
Before Inspector Worley this morning the domestic affairs of a family named Broadhead, of New Sweden, were aired in the course of a dispute between Mrs. Broadhead and her two stepchildren, who had been accused of beating him. The defendants were a boy and a girl about fifteen years of age and after the hearing of the evidence they were ordered to pay the costs of the court, and the entire three litigants were bound over to keep the peace.

AT IMMIGRATION HALL.
Yesterday afternoon three families from North Dakota, comprising 14 persons in all, arrived at the Immigration hall and will go on to the northwest of the city in the course of a day or two to take up land. They are well pleased with what they have seen of the Edmonton district.

Among other recent arrivals were two Germans from Hamburg, who will also take up land, and Chas. McKee from Toledo, Ohio, who proposes opening a general store in the East end.

Both immigration halls were crowded all the time to their utmost capacity, but the lunatics are constantly changing, the new arrivals taking the place of those going out to the country in search of land, or who build shacks and locate temporarily in these around the city.

HE WOULD HAVE IT.
Recently Mr. Robert Smith, of the Soto-Smith Co., applied to the city for telephone connection with his stock yard, but they could not comply with his request at present. With typical western spirit he had a private line, three-quarters of a mile in length, installed by the Electric company, the system supplied to him being a non-interfering or selective ringing.

With this six phones can be connected on at any one without disturbing the others.
The new telephone line, of itself particularly useful a few days after the installation, when one of Mr. Smith's clerks, who was alone at the stock yards, received a serious injury from a pair of driving horses he was breaking in. He got to the telephone and was promptly sent him from the city.

THE MASTERPIECE OF MIRTH.
The Masterpiece of Mirth was applied to for the sole permission to dramatize the phenomenally successful "Peck's Bad Boy."

The play, which is about to be staged in the city, is the story of a boy who, in the course of his adventures, becomes a hero. The play is a masterpiece of mirth and is a most successful production. It is a play that will be a success in the city.
